This Valentine’s We Have the Perfect Couple for You!

By Julie Huffman, Beneficiary Communications Coordinator

Just in time for Valentine’s Day, the Lottery is releasing a new second-chance promotion that your players are going to love!

The Game of Suits Second-Chance Promotion launches on Tuesday, February 11.

The promotion features a perfect couple of $10 instant tickets, Queen of Hearts and King of Spades.

Your players can win up to $250,000 by playing these instant tickets!

Queen of Hearts and King of Spades will be standouts in your Gigantix ticket dispenser pictured on the right. Tickets will be placed side-by-side in the case to make selling easy. The dual colors of red and black are sure to get noticed by your players.

Encourage customers purchasing Queen of Hearts and King of Spades to enter their non-winning tickets into a second-chance drawing for a chance to win $500,000!

Yes, $500,000!

In a lottery first, since both tickets can be entered into the second-chance drawing, the prize is double the ticket’s top prize!

Players can enter the Game of Suits Second-Chance Promotion by using the SC Lottery App or online at www.sclottery.com. Only Players’ Club members can enter, and joining is free. To download the SC Lottery App, players can simply visit the App Store or Google Play.

How to Avoid Needing to Complete a Retailer Credit Request

By Julie Huffman
Beneficiary Communications Coordinator

In last month’s edition of Selling Points we addressed the correct way to complete a credit request. This month we are going to explain how to avoid needing a credit request all together. The key to this process is communication. This is the critical tool necessary to successfully fulfilling customer transactions.

Clerks need to confirm with customers what they actually want to purchase before interacting with the terminal. For example, a customer walks in and asks for 50 plays for Powerball®, you need to ask whether the customer wants 50 plays for one Powerball® drawing or 50 future individual plays for upcoming individual Powerball® draws.

Confirm. Confirm. Confirm.

If a customer is asking for a ticket without a play slip, confirm with them if that’s what they want to purchase by repeating their order before interacting with the terminal. Then, always obtain payment from the customer before the final processing of the transaction.

We hope these examples will help your location to provide the best in customer service and make your valued time processing lottery products a success.

Meet Tina Tiny, of “Tiny Stories.”

Thousands of people win the Lottery every year in South Carolina, but unless they win millions, it’s like they don’t exist — until now. I’m Tina Tiny, and I’m on a quest to uncover “tiny” lottery winners. In MY world, tiny is BIG, so stay tuned for “Tiny Stories” across South Carolina with me, Tina Tiny.

Encourage your lottery winners to share their story at TellYourTinyStory.com. More on “Tiny Stories” in next month’s newsletter!

SPOTLIGHT

S&J Mart

By David Wayne, Upstate MSR

For the last 11 years Sejal and Jignesh Patel (pictured) have owned the S&J Mart in Boiling Springs. At S&J you find excellent customer service, friendly employees and lots of lottery tickets. They carry every lottery instant ticket available and also multiple options of the best sellers. The dispensers are always full and staff is always ready to help.

Every few months they give away a big screen TV. To enter, all you have to do is buy a lottery ticket. Last Christmas they gave away two TVs!

In the last two years S&J has had not one, but three $250,000 winners! They've also had a $20,000 win on an instant ticket and a $30,000 Mega Millions® winner!

With over $1.6 million in sales last year, the winners just keep coming. They post winning tickets all around the store, so customers can't say there aren't any winners.

"People like to see winning tickets," said Sejal. "The more they see the more they buy. We pay out every winning ticket up to $500. We love to see our customers win."
